

INDICATOR DATA SHEET

Indicator: Number of international tourists per 100 inhabitants

Definition: This indicator is defined as the number of annual arrivals of international tourists compared to the number of inhabitants in a country

Category: Economic Activities

Theme: Services

Type: Pressure

Unit: Number per 100 inhabitants

Calculation Method

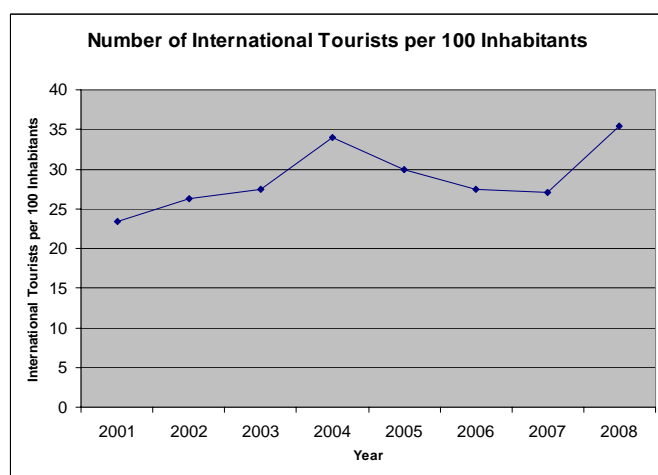

$$\frac{\text{International tourist arrivals} \times 100}{\text{Total national resident population}}$$

Data Needed	Source
Number of international tourists	Ministry of Tourism
National resident population	Central Administration of Statistics

Frequency for Updating:
Yearly

Comments:

These numbers do not include Lebanese, Syrians or Palestinians.

Year	Number of Tourists
2001	837,072
2002	956,464
2003	1,015,793
2004	1,278,469
2005	1,139,524
2006	1,062,635
2007	1,017,072
2008	1,332,551

Source of data/year: Ministry of Tourism, Letter Number 1000/1 dated 29/4/2009 registered at MoE under the number 1154/B dated 1/8/2009.

Geographic coverage: National

LEDO Reference: 42

Developed by: LEDO

Date: August 2009

